FIRST COMMUNION CELEBRATION

Congratulations to all children who have received Jesus for the first time through the sacraments of Confession and in a very special way through the Holy Eucharist in this blessed weekend dedicated to the Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Please be aware that during the summer we will not be publishing a bulletin. We will resume regular weekly publication in September.

BIG WORD OF THANKS

A big thanks to Guillermo Morales and Aixa Garcia for their support for our last "Oratorio" dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is a constant reminder of God's children generosity. Guillermo and Aixa are the promoters of the organic health products from "Vida Divina". We recommend their high quality products. I also want to thank everyone who cooperated with that beautiful day especially those who prepared the ornaments for the the church and those who prepared the get together in the basement. Thanks again and God bless.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL

In May St Vincent de Paul received donations from parishioners totalling $2,815.60. We visited 7 households including 9 adults and 1 child.

We gave out $705 in food vouchers and 2 bed frames were ordered from our warehouse $160.

We would like to thank our parishioners for their continuous support.

DELICIOUS SALVADORAN FOOD FOR SALE

On June 14, 2026 (Father's Day), we invite you to enjoy a delicious Salvadoran dish called "pupusas", a thick griddle cake or flatbread from El Salvador made with cornmeal flour stuffed with cheese, beans, chicharrón (a kind of pork rind). They will be available after the 10am and 12pm masses. They are cordially prepared by the Requena Cortez family. The funds raised will be donated to our parish. Thank you very much to the Requena Cortez family and to all of you for your generous collaboration. See you all there.
