FROM A MESSAGE FOR WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE

By His Eminence Frank Cardinal Leo

Metropolitan Archbishop of Toronto, 2 February 2026

The Gospel account relates how in the Temple, Simeon and Anna recognize the child Jesus to be the Light destined for the nations (cf. Lk 2:22-38). Today the Church recognizes in the many and varied forms of consecrated life a living reflection of that same light - radiant, faithful, and enduring—offered for the salvation of the world. [...]

The Feast of the Presentation reminds us that consecrated life is fundamentally an offering (cf. Vita Consecrata, 22). Just as Mary and Joseph presented Jesus in the Temple, you continually place your lives into God's hands in complete love and surrender for the salvation of the world. In your daily fidelity to the Gospel, to the Church, to your charism and rule/constitutions of your community, you make visible the beauty of Christ's own choice—a life poured out to the Father in love for all. Simeon's proclamation of Jesus as "a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel" (Lk 2:32), has guided the mission of consecrated men and women throughout the history of the archdiocese. Finally, Anna's witness, done within the context of her calling (Lk 2:38), reminds us of the transformative power of encounter in the ordinary and everyday circumstances of life. [...]

On this World Day of Consecrated Life, the Archdiocese of Toronto, and I personally, thank you most sincerely. We are grateful for your faithfulness, prayerfulness, and sacrifices known only to God.
